

Happy to share the news about well written autobiographical book 'हे विश्वाचे अंगण' of NY based architect and my friend, Sudhir Jambhekar. The book was published through Rajhans Prakashan on March 1, 2014, in Pune with flying colors.

It is penned by well-known writer, author, and my good friend, Sulabha Teranikar from Pune. Also proud to mention, the first edition of the book is already sold out and it is on the way of second edition...
