

Wings: Curtain Raiser Episode

A new year brings with it a message of hope, dreams and an invitation to make new beginnings. As we roll into 2022, Asha & I embark on a new adventure - taking a step into the world of podcasting.

I am delighted to announce that today, 7 January 2022, we are launching our first podcast titled “Wings.” It’s an initiative to celebrate the rich and diverse stories of India’s Youth through podcast episodes aired every Friday. Here you will meet young Indians who are in their late 20s & early 30s, who have discovered their own Wings to fly far and wide. The Wings Podcast is an attempt to ‘discover the extraordinary in the ordinary’ and is driven by our belief that ‘the future is born in the web of human conversations.’

Please do join us every Friday on Spotify & Apple Podcasts to listen and celebrate stories of India’s Youth.

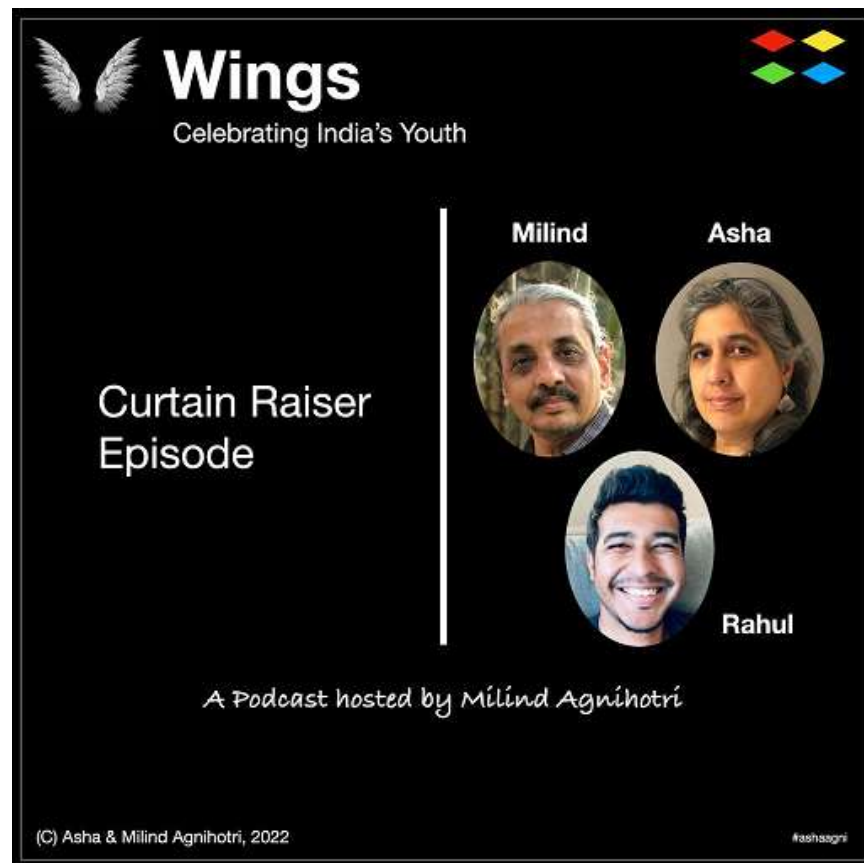

Happy listening!
