

YouTube Channel RainOrShine by diptiad

Hello friends!

Many folks, friends and especially my mentees insisted me to share my story about creating art series "Women's Rights and Empowerment" and writing the poems to create social awareness. I was in "not now", "don't have time", "maybe later" mode till now.

Since online platforms have become so powerful, I finally decided to share my story with wider audience through my YouTube channel RainOrShine by diptiad. This will inspire women to speak up, live with pride and help create male allies.

Please do like, share and subscribe to my channel because together we can make a difference.
